Ravi,

I have incorporated your changes into this compiled version, and edited it (it took a wee bit longer than I anticipated).

Please just copy out your section from this formatted document and revise.

Thanks, Ravi... I like where this is headed.

Have a good weekend and try not to work too hard.

Here is what I have managed to type in.

Table 3 gives me most frustration. As you will see, I cannot get it to be a single table anymore. Also it needs to be placed along with the section which says BBDR modeling uncertainties. Some of the Tables may be best displayed in landscape layout; you can decide if that screws things up for the rest of the document.

Thanks a lot for your help.

Ravi.
